Just because I don't agree with the fact that all us gay guys live and die for fashion, doesn't mean that it isn't funny. After all, what did I expect - picking up a book with a man in a flower shirt on the cover? No florals in my closet. I give it 3 stars as I got through three chapters and found them funny. However, since the theme/content did not change that deep into the book - nor did the ...

Dear Yolo, I was just out with a mini-interview with Simon Doonan (Refinery). He's a stylist guy, writes articles for the Slate, just came out with a book called Gay Men Don't Get Fat (I know!) and he also does the window displays at Barneys. I really liked a couple of his quotes so I thought I'd share.
